   (b) Shop-cum-residential plots;
   (c) Shop plots;
   (d) Industrial plots; and
   (e) Public/community services plots.
The Town Planning Authority will prepare detailed lay out plans for these five categories of land keeping in view the Master Plan of the New Capital, Bhubaneswar. The size of the residential plot should be minimum 5 decimals and maximum 20 decimals.

6. (a) List of vacant sites under all the five categories of plots in paragraph 5 will be prepared by the Director of Estates unitwise in consultation with the Director, Town Planning and put up to the Committee for consideration.

(b) Allotment of land near temple/mosque/church or monuments of archaeological/historical importance shall not or ordinarily be leased out for private purposes.

7. The Director of Estates will prepare a list of pending applications for various purposes indicating the choice of the applicants for allotment of land in different units. This along with the list of the vacant plots drawn up under paragraph 6 will be placed before the Committee in its meeting for consideration of allotment.

8. Order of preference—(a) In order to safeguard the interest of the economically weaker group, a certain percentage of plots in all the four categories, viz., residential/shop-cum-residential/shop industrial plots will be reserved for them. These plots will be generally smaller in size (a person will be considered as belonging to the economically weaker group if his income from all sources is not more than Rs. 4,000 per annum).

(b) Certain percentage of all the four categories of plots, viz., residential/industrial/shop-cum-residential/shop plots will be reserved for the defence personnel including those serving in the second line defence and persons rendering essential services in the New Capital.

Defence personnel means—

(i) Personnel of the Indian Army Navy and Air Force;

(ii) Personnel of the Border Security Force or Indo-Tibetan Border Force; and
